Thomas P. Sullivan

Keynote Speaker:

Thomas P. Sullivan

A partner at Jenner & Block, Thomas P. Sullivan specializes in trials and appeals of civil and criminal cases, internal investigations, arbitration and mediation. Mr. Sullivan is an author and speaker on subjects relating to trials and appeals of civil and criminal cases, criminal justice reform, and police investigatory procedures. Mr. Sullivan is well-known for his significant contributions to the public interest.

Mr. Sullivan has won numerous awards for his advocacy for the poor, minorities and disenfranchised groups. Following the 1968 Democratic Convention, he represented defense attorneys and protesters. With Albert Jenner, Jr., he battled the U.S. House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee. In one of the first mortgage lending cases brought by the Chicago Lawyers' Committee, Sullivan represented the Contract Buyers League, a group of hundreds of African American homebuyers who were refused conventional mortgage financing. From 1977 to 1981, he served as U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, where he spearheaded the Operation Greylord probe. Returning to Jenner & Block, he fought overcrowding in Cook County Jail, conducted corruption investigations for Mayor Harold Washington, and reviewed the practices of the Highland Park Police Department. Mr. Sullivan's deep commitment to fair housing resulted in being named independent monitor of the Chicago Housing Relocation Project in 2002 and 2003. He was Co-Chair of the Illinois Governor's Commission on Capital Punishment from 2000 to 2002, and continues to be a member of the Steering Committee for the ABA's Death Penalty Moratorium Implementation Project. He is Chair of both the Illinois Capital Punishment Reform Study Committee and the Northwestern University Law School Center on Wrongful Convictions Advisory Board.

Mr. Sullivan, with a number of partners, has represented several prisoners in custody at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base in Cuba. He has been an outspoken advocate on behalf of the prisoners at Guantanamo, addressing the fundamental unfairness of the Combatant Status Review Tribunal process generally, and the lack of access to habeas corpus review specifically. In September 2006, Sullivan testified before the United States Senate Judiciary Committee, expressing his grave concerns about the Military Commissions Act, which stripped detainees' ability to file habeas petitions.
